For Immediate Release:

Brown County Fair Headliners: A Little Bit Country, A Little “Spirit of the Wild.”

(Brown County) – The Motor City Madman: hard-rocker and outdoor enthusiast, Ted Nugent headlines at the Brown County Fair Thursday, August 14. “The Nuge”, best known for slick guitar solos and powerhouse vocals in 1970’s hard rock classics (Cat Scratch Fever, Death by Misadventure), kicks off two nights of Main stage entertainment. Show starts at 7:30pm, Thursday.

Fans will fall under the spell of country music chart topper Rodney Atkins (Watching You, Angel's Hands), when he appears on the Main stage at 7:30pm on Friday, August 15. Atkins has been nominated for six Academy of Country Music Awards including top male vocalist, song of the year and album of the year.

Entry to all Main Stage shows is included in the daily price of admission to the Brown County Fair. Tickets are $10 in advance for each day of the fair, $10 at the gate on Wednesday and Sunday, and $15 at the gate Thursday, Friday and Saturday. VIP tickets are also available for the Rodney Atkins show $25 and include VIP seating at the Main Stage Friday, August 15 only. To purchase fair tickets in advance, please send a check payable to the Brown County Fair Association to P O Box 195, Greenleaf, WI 54126, along with your name and mailing address. Advance tickets also available at local outlets. Check website for details. VIP tickets go on sale Saturday, July 26 at 8AM, Brown County Fairgrounds.
