For Immediate Release:

Show Off Your Talents at the Brown County Fair

(Brown County) – Tiny tot, swinging senior or somewhere in-between: everyone is good at something, and we know that Brown County is chock full of talented people. If your hobby is home-arts (baking, needlepoint, crochet, knitting, macramé, quilting), photography, woodworking, arts and crafts, collectibles training pets or raising livestock, the Brown County Fair has an exhibit category for you!

This is a great opportunity to display - and possibly earn recognition for - your work. Both ribbon and cash premiums are awarded to winners. Schools and youth organizations are also encouraged to enter exhibits in the fair.

Rules and entry forms can be found in the Brown County Fair Exhibitor Handbook available from public library branches located throughout Brown County. The handbook is also available at the County Extension office or on line at www.browncountyfair.com.

Some exhibits require advance preparation and preparing for exhibition can be a great summer activity. Entry deadlines are Thursday, May 1 for school groups, Monday, June 16 for the junior division, and Monday July 28 for senior citizen and open class exhibitors.

All entries will be displayed for public view at the Brown County Fair held at the Brown County Fairgrounds in DePere, August 13 – 17, 2008.
