

BROWN COUNTY FAIR RULES

It is a privilege to participate in the Brown County Fair. This privilege can be revoked for conduct unbecoming an exhibitor, parent, leader or volunteer. Exhibitors, family members or spectators not obeying the rules may result in loss of premiums awarded for the current year and exhibitor may not be eligible to show at the fair the following year.

GENERAL RULES (Junior, Open and Senior Citizen)

1. Exhibitors should be sure to read the rules for each department. Failure to follow rules will result in a lower ribbon/premium.
2. Wisconsin Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection Chapter ATCP 160 govern fairs.
3. The Brown County Fair Association reserves the right to interpret rules and regulations and resolve issues. All policy decisions are subject to final approval of the Brown County Fair Board.
4. All exhibits must be the result of the exhibitors own work during the current year.
5. Only one entry per lot number, with the exception of the Market Classes for Beef, Swine and Sheep.
6. Once entry forms are received by the Brown County Fair Office, there will be no opportunity to make changes or additions.
7. If an entry tag error is the fault of the Brown County Fair Office, there will be no penalty and a corrected entry tag will be written by fair personnel. If the error is the fault of the exhibitor, the entry will be judged, but the placing will be dropped one premium level.
8. Anyone who removes takes down or packs away anything (including items other than exhibits) prior to 6:00 pm Sunday without permission from the Exhibits Coordinator will forfeit the premium for that project.
9. All persons participating in the fair agree to make no legal claim against the Brown County Fair Association, or person acting for or through the fair, for loss, damage, or injury to property, animal or person during the progress of the fair or while enroute to or from the fair.
10. Security measures are taken during the fair. However, all exhibits will be displayed at the owner's risk. Exhibitors will be held responsible for any damage or accident caused by their entries.
11. Vehicles are not allowed to be parked in the fire lanes at any time. Vehicles or trailers parked in non-designated parking areas will be ticketed and towed at owner's expense.
12. In hardship cases, authority for removal of an exhibit will be granted only upon joint agreement of the superintendent of the department, the Exhibits Coordinator, and the Brown County Fair Management.

ANIMAL DEPARTMENT RULES (Junior and Open)

1. Only animals that are being exhibited are allowed on the grounds, unless permission is received prior to the fair from the Fair Management or Exhibits Coordinator.
2. No animal sales are permitted other than at auction. No "For Sale" signs can be displayed.
3. To exhibit animals in the Junior Department, youth must have completed at least the third grade during the current year.
4. Garments with commercial advertising will not be allowed to be worn in the judging ring.
5. Vehicles are not allowed to be parked next to livestock barns from 7:00 am on Wednesday through 6:00 pm on Sunday. Vehicles may unload near the barns, but must be moved in a timely manner.
6. Campers/Sleeper Trailers are to be parked only in assigned spots. Reservations must be made using the Camper/Sleeper Trailer Reservation form (found online at www.browncountyfair.com or by calling 606-5120). Forms will begin being accepted starting July 30th. Fee must accompany reservation in order to hold camping spot.
7. Brown County Fair Rules & Expectations for Exhibitors Staying Overnight at the Fairgrounds form must be turned in to the Brown County Fair Office by August 10th. This form can be found online at www.browncountyfair.com or by calling 606-5120. Exhibitors are allowed to stay overnight Wednesday through Saturday.
8. There are many different noises that are a part of the fair. If your animal is sensitive to the fair atmosphere, you may want to reconsider your animal choice. While, we do not want to discourage any exhibitors, we feel the safety of our fair patrons, exhibitors and animals is our utmost concern. Any issues or concerns will be addressed at the discretion of the Superintendent, Exhibits Coordinator and the Fair Management.
9. All exhibitors of animals are responsible for supplying their own feed, water and bedding. All animal exhibitors are responsible for feeding and watering their own animals.
10. All animal exhibitors are responsible for cleaning on a daily basis the stalls/pens/cages that their animals have used for the duration of the fair. Cleaning of stalls/pens/cages is to be done by 9:00 am each day.
11. Barns will start closing at approximately 10:30 pm each night.
12. Use the Animal Stall, Pen and Cage Reservation Form found online at www.browncountyfair.com or by calling 606-5120. Reservations are due to the Brown County Fair Office by July 30th.
13. All stalls, pens or cages must be completely cleaned out by Monday after the fair at noon.
14. The signature of a licensed veterinarian is required for early release of any animal. The Brown County Fair Association has a licensed veterinarian available at no cost to the exhibitor. Any treatment or medications will be charged to the exhibitor and must be paid at the time of treatment or by personal arrangement with the vet. Contacting your own veterinarian will be at the exhibitor's expense.
